POLICY FOR FINANCIAL SUPPORT TO TEACHING STAFFS TO ATTEND FDPs, RESEARCH WORKS, CONFERENCES, WORKSHOPS, SEMINARS, AND MEMBERSHIP FEES

Research and quality improvement in the teaching and learning process, we believe, contribute to classroom excellence. Substantial changes in educational structure have happened both nationally and globally, making learning more accessible. Teachers must be more adaptable, versatile, and diverse as a result of these developments. Internal faculty members can improve their academic knowledge by using the platforms given by well-designed Financial Support Policy.

POLICY STATEMENT

This initiative aims to help faculty members advance their academic careers. The purpose is met through providing financial help to educators and encouraging them to attend seminars, symposia, conferences, workshops, and training sessions held in India and around the world. This would help with knowledge sharing, academic progress, collaboration, and networking. This also contributes to the creation of a conducive environment for academic learning. Such interactions and interventions would increase teachers' professional and personal efficacy, resulting in institutional, individual, and student academic success.

OBJECTIVES

Provide financial assistance to all teaching faculty for the following:

- Attending or participating in seminars, symposia, conference workshops, refresher courses, PhD programme course works, book publishing, and training workshops both in India and abroad.
- International cooperation and exchange programmes, which may include international internships.
- Advising faculty members to apply for travel grants.
- Programs for all teaching faculty members in India and overseas.

SCOPE OF THE POLICY:

The policy applies to all levels of academic/research activities except certification programmes. Participation in such programmes is subject to local need assessments and permission, among other things, and is in accordance with the institution's standards. Faculty engagement should be aligned with academic content standards or research criteria as outlined in the Research Policy.

POLICY GUIDELINES:

The following guidelines have been created in accordance with policies.

- Staff Members-Teaching and non-teaching employees on a permanent basis who are on probation shall be eligible for awards under the following conditions:
- Financial assistance for teachers to attend seminars, FDPs, and conferences in order to enhance their intellectual capacities.
- Financial aid is offered, and faculty members are encouraged to participate in workshops, trainings, and refresher programmes.
- To participate in international conferences, the faculty member must have completed his or her probation period.
- After probation, faculty members are encouraged to apply for UGC grants and other funding bodies with the agreement of the Principal.

Note: If the allocated UGC funds are fully utilized, the institution will provide monetary assistance in the above-mentioned conditions using Special Earmarked funds from Management.
